

Tick the sentence that uses a semi-colon correctly.

- I ordered; a healthy salad my friend had chips. ---- ☐
- I ordered a healthy salad; my friend had chips. ---- ☐
- I ordered a healthy salad my; friend had chips. ---- ☐
- I ordered a healthy salad my friend had; chips. ---- ☐

Insert a semi-colon in the correct place.

Sally looked for an hour
she still couldn't find her headphones.

Circle the semi-colon that is in the correct place.

The headteacher; is leaving in July; the teachers have bought her; a lovely gift.

Which list is punctuated correctly?

- A) I needed to pack many items for the trip; my fluffy blanket: my hat with the pom-pom on: my thermal socks: and my wellies.
- B) I needed to pack many items for the trip: my fluffy blanket; my hat with the pom-pom on; my thermal socks; and my wellies.

True or false? Explain your answer.

This sentence uses a semi-colon correctly.

It was a warm, sunny day; we spent all afternoon at the beach.

---

---

Rewrite these instructions using semi-colons to separate the listed items.

You will need the following items to bake your pastry: butter that has been left at room temperature plain flour (preferably organic) and water which isn't too cold.

---

---

---